

APA

106th National Planning Conference
April 26–30, 2014

FINAL PROGRAM

ADVANCE
IN ATLANTA

2:30 p.m. (continued)

Turning Infrastructure from Gray to Green CM | 1.25

Tuesday, 2:30–3:45 p.m.

Location: GWCC–C208/C209/C210

Can land set aside for transportation do more than just meet transit needs? Examine the PATH 400 Trail + Green Space System. Approved for 1.25 PDH by the LA CES. (S646)

Carlos F. Perez, AECOM, Atlanta; Denise W. Starling, Liveable Buckhead, Atlanta; Edwin McBrayer, Path Foundation Atlanta; Kimberly W. Nesbitt, Dept. of Transportation, Atlanta; Arthur Wendel, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Atlanta; Charles How Shook, Atlanta City Hall

The Gay Ghetto and Its Consequences for Planning CM | 1.25

Tuesday, 2:30–3:45 p.m.

Location: GWCC–C102

Census data suggests that many established gay neighborhoods in the United States are losing lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender men and women. Find out why and examine the consequences for planning. Host: Gays and Lesbians in Planning Division. (S647)

Petra L. Doan, Florida State Univ., Tallahassee; John H. Keho, AICP, City of West Hollywood, Calif.; Bradly S. Torgan, AICP, Law Office of Bradly S. Torgan, West Hollywood, Calif.; Gary J. Gates, UCLA, Seattle

Palm Springs, Las Vegas, and Heritage Tourism CM | 1.25

Tuesday, 2:30–3:45 p.m.

Location: GWCC–C202/C203/C204

Palm Springs, California, and Las Vegas, Nevada are two popular tourist towns that have made 20th century architecture a major draw. Find out how festivals focused on architecture and design have become highly popular. Approved for 1.25 LU/HSW by the AIA. (S649)

M. Margo Wheeler, AICP, City of Palm Springs, Calif.; Courtney Mooney, AICP, City of Las Vegas; J. R. Roberts, Boccoardo Roberts Architecture and Design, Palm Springs, Calif.

Addressing Flood Risk in Coastal Louisiana CM | 1.25

Tuesday, 2:30–3:45 p.m.

Location: GWCC–A404/A405

Louisiana faces one of the world’s highest rates of land loss. Explore Louisiana’s 2012 Coastal Master Plan, which provides a 50-year, $50 billion strategy for coastal restoration, protection, and community resiliency. (S650)

Jeffrey A. Carney, Louisiana State Univ., Baton Rouge; Andrea Galinski, Coastal Protection & Restoration Authority, Baton Rouge, La.; Scott A. Hemmerling, Baton Rouge, La.; Matthew Bethel, Louisiana Sea Grant College Program, Baton Rouge

MPO ‘Livable Communities’ Programs CM | 1.25

Tuesday, 2:30–3:45 p.m.

Location: GWCC–C205

Many Metropolitan Planning Organizations provide funds to help government and nonprofit organizations foster mixed used centers and corridors. Explore how these “livable communities” programs have evolved. Host: Regional and Intergovernmental Planning Division. (S651)

Lee A. Schoenecker, AICP, Washington, D.C.; Marsha McLaughlin, Howard County Planning and Zoning, Ellicott City, Md.; Daniel J. Reuter, AICP, Atlanta Regional Commission; Karla Weaver, AICP, North Central Texas COG, Arlington; Kenneth D. Kirkey, Metropolitan Transportation Commission, Oakland, Calif.

Reinventing a Regional Mall CM | 1.25

Tuesday, 2:30–3:45 p.m.

Location: GWCC–C107

The Dallas Galleria is a competitive regional shopping center, while nearby Valley View Mall has declined. Learn how Dallas is redeveloping 450 acres of strategic real estate around these two retail centers. (S652)

Peer F. Chacko, AICP, City of Dallas; James T. Housewright, Omniplan, Inc., Dallas; Scott Beck, Beck Ventures, Dallas

TUESDAY

LEGEND

Forums

- Research Day: Planning Research That Matters (Sunday)
- Law Day: A New Look at Takings (Monday)
- Transportation Day: Building Economic Growth Through Transportation (Monday)
- Neighborhood Day: Planning Neighborhoods of Lasting Value (Tuesday)

Symposia

- Planning Healthy Communities
- Sustaining Places
- Bettman Symposium on Law